MEMORANDUM FOR:

Executive Registry

76-7515/2

I am returning the note you handed me the other day regarding Mike Duval's request to attend some of our briefings.

I talked to Mike and have arranged for him to come out and attend the Brookings briefing today. He will be given the attached schedule of future briefings and asked which he wants to attend.

This completes the action.

GB:

Mike Duval called and said he would like to be included in both classified and unclassified briefing we give here to different groups so that he can get a better feel on the overall intelligence activities.

Mike is making speeches throughout the country on the President's intelligence program and he feels this would be most useful to him.

Said to tell you that the speeches are going over very well. Press coverage has been great.

MEMORANDUM FOR GEORGE BUSH

FROM: MIKE DUVAL

Attached is an outline I have used when talking about the President's Intelligence Package on the road.

I try to make the point that while we have always known how important the Intelligence Agencies are to the security of the nation, what the last year has taught us is that this is a two-way street. The Intelligence Agencies also need the strong support of the country.
